

Ginn West End Foundation donates $20,000 to the Kohn Foundation
Scholarship Fund

By Janet Albury

Aug 5, 2010 - 1:35:22 PM

Email this article
Printer friendly page

Freeport, Grand Bahama - The Ginn West End Foundation was pleased to make a donation of Twenty thousand dollars [$20,000] to the Kohn Foundation's Scholarship Fund, in order to financially assist students from the West End community who are enrolled to further their education during the upcoming 2010-2011 academic year. The donation was made on July 27th, 2010. These high achievers are now afforded an opportunity to continue their education in order to obtain a degree of higher learning in their chosen field of study.

Representing The Ginn West End Foundation was Distribution Committee Members, Janet Albury and Jerreth Rolle.

“The Ginn West End Foundation is delighted to provide these scholarships, thus alleviating some of the financial burden from the families of these students. These individuals have demonstrated that they have applied themselves scholastically and are serious about their future, hence, they deserve every opportunity afforded them”, says Janet Albury of The Ginn West End Foundation.

Representing The Kohn Foundation was Jerreth Rolle [West End Town Council] and Mary Nairn.

“On behalf of the Kohn Foundation and especially for Ellen Kohn, I wish to say ‘thank you’ to The Ginn West End Foundation for their significant contribution. They continually demonstrate that they are a good corporate citizen in west Grand Bahama and once again, they have stepped forward to make the future brighter for so many. We are changing lives for the better and that is something to be proud of”, said Jerreth Rolle of the Kohn Foundation. “To the recipients, I say – continue to do well, don’t get side tracked, stay focused and enjoy the experience afforded you”, he further stated.

The students currently enrolled in tertiary level education are:

1. Romal Russell: College of The Bahamas, Freeport, GB Island
2. Maressa Hanna: College of The Bahamas, Nassau, New Providence – [History Teacher]
3. Bionka Pedican: College of The Bahamas, Freeport, GB Island –[Business Management]

4. Georgeanna Henfield: College of The Bahamas, Freeport, GB Island – [Education]
5. Dawn Fernander: College of The Bahamas, Freeport, GB Island – [Forensic Science & Criminal Justice]
6. Kiam Knowles: ITT Technical Institute, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, USA
7. Baronique Duncombe: East Texas Baptist University, USA – [Journalism]
8. Silia Woodside: University of New Brunswick, St. John, New Brunswick, Canada [Marine Biology]
9. Moses Moxey, Jr.: University of Nebraska, USA – [Business Management]

Five [5] new recipients are:

1. Jamal Darville: Success Training College, Freeport, GB Island – [Computer Science]
2. Kathy McQueen: Success Training College, Freeport, GB Island – [Education]
3. Aneka Ferguson: Success Training College, Freeport, GB Island – [Nursing]
4. Cardia Rolle – [Chemical Engineering]
5. Laura Smith – College of the Bahamas, Freeport, GB Island – [Nursing]
6. Chaunse Willis – College of the Bahamas, Nassau, New Providence

ABOUT THE GINN WEST END FOUNDATION:

The Ginn West End Foundation was established as a Charitable Trust. It is Ginn's goal and intent, in establishing this trust, to undertake public improvement projects and other projects for the good and/ or well being of the West End area of Grand Bahama Island. The Ginn West End Foundation has sponsored numerous programmes and projects for the well being and benefit of the West End community.

ABOUT THE KOHN FOUNDATION:

The Kohn Foundation actively began supporting our first two students in 2005, and with the addition of our new applicants this year, we will have helped 19 students, many of whom have been able to finish college and pursue career opportunities.

The Kohn Foundation has also donated money for local food banks, churches, and needy families, from time to time.

Their other mission is helping the Humane Society of Grand Bahama to raise money for spay/neuter programs and supporting the shelter with purchasing medicines and vaccines for shelter animals, which The Ginn West End Foundation, co-sponsored in West End. To obtain further information on the Kohn Foundation, you may log onto - website: www.TheKohnFoundation.org.